

CONFERENCE REIF
SOCIAL SECURITY VS NEW RISKS :
ANTICIPATING, PROTECTING, ADAPTATING
NOVEMBER 29, 2023,
FRENCH PERMANENT REPRESENTATION TO THE EU

PROGRAM

Registration – 15:30-15:50

Building entry: Place de Louvain 14, 1000, Brussels. Please bring the ID you used for your registration.

Introduction – 16:00-16:10

Isabelle Sancerni, Reif President

Moderation

Amandine Crespy, Professor of political sciences and European studies, Université libre de Bruxelles (ULB)

Round table 1 - 16:10-17:05

New needs, new responses

What are the new risks citizens are facing and how can social security institutions respond to them?

Dana Bachmann Head of unit Social protection, DG EMPL, European Commission

Pascal Cormery, President, CCMSA (French social security system for agricultural professions)

Miska Simanainen, Researcher in social policies, Kela (Finnish social security)

Renaud Villard, Director general, Cnav (French retirement fund)

Round table 2 - 17:05-18:00

Getting ready and resilient

How do social security institutions have to adapt to ensure the sustainability of the European social model?

Nathalie Berger, Director, DG REFORM, European Commission

Virginie Magnant, Director, CNSA (French social security fund for autonomy)

María José Tarrero Martos, Advisor on Labour, Migration and Social security, Spanish Permanent representation to the EU

Christophe Valentie, Director general, Unédic (French unemployment insurance)

Conclusions – 18:00-18:15

Francesco Corti, Advisor to the Belgian Minister of Social Affairs and Health

Reception – 18:15 – 20:00